MUST KEEP LIST OF GUESTS

Irishmen Incensed by Drastic Order In Connection With Martial Law in Cork.

Buenos Aires.—Protesting against the recent tariff measure passed by the Argentine house of representatives, which it is claimed, virtually prohibits the import of wheat, flour, corn, wool and various meat products, by the United States, the Argentine confederation of commerce, industry and production, has sent a note to the Argentine government advising that reprisals be taken against products from the United States imported by Argentina if the house measure is enacted into law.

Revision of Federal Tax.

New York.—Recommendations for a radical revision of the federal tax laws, calling for a curtailment of more than $1,000,000,000 a year have been made public by the tax committee of the National Industrial Conference board.

The report, expressing the opinion of only the committee, will be submitted as a basis for discussion of the third national industrial tax conference, which will convene here January 21, 22. The report presents the following recommendations:

Repeal of the excess profit tax, which would diminish federal taxes $300,000,000 per annum.

Reduction of surtax rates, which would entail a loss of $200,000,000 annually.

A provision that business losses for any year should be deductible from the income derived during the succeeding year or the preceding year, which would curtail taxes $50,000,000 yearly.

Must Keep List of Guests.

Cork.—A military proclamation orders that all householders in the martial law area on January 1 affix on the inner side of their doors a list of all inmates with age, sex and other description. Hotels, and lodging house keepers are required to furnish daily to the nearest police station a similar list with information as to where each guest comes from and where he is going.

View On Russia Still Obscure.

London.—The king's speech on the occasion of the proroguing of parliament, after reference to the continued friendly relations with foreign powers, alluded to the Greek difficulty and declared that the government would, in conjunction with the allies, endeavor to reach a solution compatible with their joint responsibilities. The situation with respect to Russia was described as still unsettled and obscure.

Proclaims State of War.

London.—D'Annunzio has proclaimed that a state of war exists between his Fiume government and Italy and has forbidden the population of Fiume to leave the city. The proclamation, says the Central News Rome correspondent, adds that anyone speaking against D'Annunzio is liable to be shot.
